

BREMBO'S COMMITMENT

SOSTENIAMOCI, INTEGRATION PROJECT (ITALY)

In the current migratory context, Brembo has launched a project with CESVI which aims to help unaccompanied foreign minors and young adults achieve social and economic independence.

TARGET

- Encourage the reception and integration of young migrants in Italy.
- Strengthen the ability and individual skills of the young people involved.
- Promote their integration in the job market.

ACTIONS

- Select young people for the program who are motivated and keen to create themselves a life in Italy.
- Sign a pact of responsibility.
- Define and implement a vocational guidance and training program based on abilities, individual aspirations and the job market.
- Organize Italian language and civic education courses.
- Provide young migrants with psychological support.
- Offer opportunities for apprenticeships and vocational training in various companies in the area.

RESULTS

- Integration of young migrants in society.
- Signing of trainee or apprenticeship agreements for young people.
