

BREMBO AWARDS MONTEZEMOLO AT 83° ITALY GRAND PRIX

Ferrari Spa Chairman awarded with 'Bernie Ecclestone Award 2012', prestigious prize at successes achieved in Formula One

Monza, 8th September 2012 – During official qualifying day of 83° edition of Italy Grand Prix at Monza, Brembo Chairman Alberto Bombassei, Cristina Bombassei and Formula One Management Limited (FOM) Chairman Bernie Ecclestone have given to Luca Cordero di Montezemolo the prize 'Bernie Ecclestone Award 2012'.

The special trophy given to Ferrari Chairman, a Formula One braking system, has been achieved with the following motivation:

"To have kept at high level the interest of Formula One thanks to a constant competitiveness of Ferrari single seaters, achieved through the motivation of a professional team headed by him and the technical contribution given by suppliers".

The award ceremony has taken place at FOM (Formula One Management) motorhome.

Since 1975, Brembo's entrance year in Formula One World Championship, the Italian Company has invested maximum commitment in research and development of highly innovative and technological products offering high performances, guaranteeing maximum reliability and safety.

In these years of presence in the maximum formula, Brembo has achieved 17 Drivers World Championships and 22 Constructors World Championships, divided in this way: 14 with Scuderia Ferrari, 3 with McLaren Honda, 2 with Benetton Renault, 2 with Red Bull Racing and 1 with Brawn GP.
