

BREMBO ENTERS “TRUCK RACING”

Signed the agreement with Truck Sport Lutz Bernau team for FIA European Truck Racing Championship 2011

Stezzano (Italy), 8th 2011 – Brembo, world leader in design, development and production of braking systems for competition since more than 30 years, is from today official supplier of Truck Sport Lutz Bernau (TSB) team at FIA European Truck Championship. The agreement signed with TSB team marks Brembo entrance in the segment of racing trucks races. A significant step that, after Formula One, MotoGP, Superbike, Nascar, only to quote some of them, brings Brembo to consolidate its International leadership in the production of braking systems for competition.

Thanks to the partnership, Brembo will join German team in the most spectacular European circuit starting from Nurburgring, Germany, where on Sunday 10th July the team runs next round of the Championship. The following races will be in Russia (Truck Battle), Czech Republic (Czech Truck Prix 2011), Belgium (Zolder), Spain (XXV G.P. Camión de España) and France (Le Mans). Research and development is, for Brembo, the successful key with regard to original equipment, aftermarket and, last but not least, international motorsports. Every year about 5 per cent of the total turnover is invested in testing and designing the most innovative braking systems.

Brembo multi-year experience in the development of racing high performance solutions makes the synergy with Truck Sport Lutz Bernau team the natural development of its activity. Satisfy safety and technical requirements of the members of TSB team constitutes for the Company the innovative challenge to put its leadership in the service of one of the strongest European teams in an extreme contest as the one of racing trucks competition. A sector where to make win a vehicle with a weight of more than 5 tons, able to develop 1000 horsepower and reach 160Km/h in 6 seconds, excellent braking systems are required.
